

NNASC EXPERTS DIRECTORY

The Network on North American Studies in Canada (NNASC), together with the Portal for North America (PNA), an initiative driven by The Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI), is pleased to announce the official launch of its North American Studies Experts Directory. The first-of-its-kind electronic tool provides a current and comprehensive searchable database of experts on all facets of North American Studies.

Academics and professionals:

- Connect with potential collaborators
- Discover who is doing research that interests you

Policy Makers:

- Expand your network of experts who support your mission
- Keep up on research in your area
- Broaden your base of potential advisors

Students:

- Search for program materials and possible advisors
- Keep up on related research
- Expand your network

Media:

- Find local experts to provide commentary and op-eds
- Search for experts to support news stories

Explore the NNASC Experts Directory @: www.portalfornorthamerica.org

Search by: keyword, name, research area, academic discipline, institution, geographic location, and more!

Coming Soon: Interactive Map, United States and Mexico additions

Not listed? Feel free to submit your information to us via the Experts Directory Submission Form available on Portal for North America and/or contact Jennifer Regan, the National Coordinator for NNASC at 613-688-5517/ jregan@fulbright.ca.

Preview today at:

www.portalfornorthamerica.org